

Pushing the Limits of Permanence

Residential child care and foster care conference

Thursday 24 September 2015
St James' Park, Newcastle City Centre

Be part of a unique and exciting one-day conference hosted by CELCIS (Centre for Excellence for Looked After Children in Scotland), The National Centre, Care Leavers' Association and Care Forum Wales. You will have the opportunity to hear and engage with vibrant and informed speakers about the importance of permanence for our children and young people in residential and foster care.

Our speakers will present on their care experiences, share their work on practice, research and detail why permanence is pivotal in making a difference to the lives of looked after children and young people.

If you work within residential child care, foster care, academia, policy, management or regulation, we extend an invite to you. We promise it will be an exciting and progressive conference that will stimulate thinking, facilitate learning and offer out new networking opportunities UK wide.

Come along - we look forward to welcoming you!
